Lynchburg Bureau...... 215 Eighth Street | Statistics evidence, as does common- which had become the subject of heated BY MAIL vice in Richmond (and suburbs) and Petersmunity advantages.

from the heart, and there is no answer.

It is the harshest, yet gentlest, indictment of modern Richmond we have upon a flet salary until the General Assembly has ordered such a change.

The City Sergeant cannot be put themselves disciples of the Sage of Monticello square deed with word.

Assembly has ordered such a change of the Sage of Monticello square deed with word.

Hank Peters says he expects to go the Sage of the S street car service are just symbols, they can be remedied, but until we have a change of heart toward community life, the indictment will remain true. It plans that the average man cannot find serve the community has been compelled by public sentiment, if not by political presence, to join immediately Chris behaving to help him make a pleasant of Conner's company.

When April is trimming the present that the wake of a ship. Smail boys taunt him; grave men smile at the youthful folly; petite maids bite their lips or titter, according as the hero is handsome or merely human. It takes nerve to break the camel's back of custom with a lonesome straw hat.

O'Conner's company.

loses live strong youths nurtured in without food and about to starve. inquive and japaine and artichoke and And makin each hill and each vale and this same ideal. It loses the help in this "Little Pelitors" Court" there sleegin dancing athwart the verdant

WHERE WOMEN LEAD,

In these plping days of the woman safe only to look at in the heat of force righteousness? proved truth. For this reason, it may THE TEST OF JEFFERSONISM.

The Cimes Dispairh one must benefit the other; if not in sonally addresses Parliament. No evidence exists to prove that Jefferson proved generation that follows. Yet was actuated by any such reason. His Business Office Times Dispatch Building it is good to observe why wemen are objection was not to the spoken ad-more girls than boys are being gradu- business of Congress. Daily with Sunday $5.00 $2.00 $1.50 .55 ated by the high schools and grade Mr. Jefferson said in a letter of De-Sunday edition only 200 1.00 .50 .25 turning out a greater number of wo- Senate: By Times-Dispatch Carrier Delivery Ser- men with degrees in proportion to the "The circumstances under which we entire output. In the other aspects of education outside of schools it would be detected on the convenient the mode heretofore practiced of making by personal address the first computations, between the Esteber January 27, 1965, at Richmond, Va., the arts this is true. As for books, the sions through the session. Enter January 27, 1800, at Richmond, Va., as second-class matter under act of Congress greatest number are read by women this, I have had principal regard to the convenience of the Legislature, to their re-tures, recitals and correspondence improve the feminine mind. In some thence resulting to the public affairs ways the effect is unfortunate on art. In a later letter he told Dr. Benjapub- diterature and learning. The leisure min Rush: Itshed letter and the editorial concerning "The Young Voter." The reference to libraries especially caught my attention. I have recently emit grated here from the West, and I find. They have the time. In so much they in its true sense—i.e., pub-tions for quilic use and tion only—dead or at least of exhibition only-dead or at least less vital. The remedy, however, is swer."

What use is a fine State library not to give women less, but men more. Nothing there about imitation of building full of great nortraits to the education, and make it all human and royalty. Even the most strained con-

the library's aim to reach, tention. Through such comparisons, ittle leisure time except Sunmade with honesty and kindliness, both made with honesty and kindliness, both to his address that he desires is a stores are closed sexes may be helped and stimulated.

does not care to announcement, made weeks asy, or every often. There allows too numerous all spring from this till spring from this proper places of instruction and enter-ancestors for many generations, but have passed nearly all of my life away from its soil. Myself and family have always considered Virginia home and for years have been preparing to come back here and for years have been preparing to come back here and live when we were financially able.

We have all been very much disappointed, not with the pointed, not with the pointed, not with the pointed not with the pointed not with the pointed not with the substitute of the financially advantages.

The service of the financial pointed is a salary basis," but would be "glad to have the office at a salary basis," but would be "glad to have the office at a salary of $3,500 a year," Canditation of a fair and reasonable flat salary of the fees the office now back here and live and live and live and live and the constant of the financially all the substitution of a fair and reasonable flat salary for the fees the office now bays, the exact amount of which the pointed, not with the pointed not with the poople individually, but with its absolute indifference to common the pointed of the pointe ss,000, some say it is $15,000, but the only certain fact is that any system of compensation which prevents the people of the body maintain special privilege in sugar and the other would preserve bushols of dynamite and will soon do when completed it was the most excompensation which prevents the peof Richmond will read it with the sober its. committed to the replacement of funding that comes from facing the maked truth. There is honest pathon in those brief sentences, and most parked for all in the fact that there is and nature. He cannot find a car that unique tribunal-a court in which gear a sweet and balmy season. It is as the poor man's automobile will there are no costs to pay, "The Little good to love the gentle Lydian airs of there are no costs to pay. "The lattle carry him to his country club, the open fields. The country and climate devout, but this man must return to the West to find the advantages that the country and will be a court without lawyers, without fees and without court officers."

The local people will be the result? The local people will have to journey miles from their homes, the traveling public miles from their hotels. When April is startin' the roses to the traveling public miles from their hotels, the commuters will continue getting to the train, and as for the will be a last year's hid's uest where there's room.

And April are there:

So the result? The local people will have to journey miles from their homes, the traveling public miles from their hotels, the commuters will continue getting to the train, and as for the miles look away to a world through travelers? They will be shuntthe community can give all its members at such a little price.

Only a judge constitutes it, and to him the oppressed can go with small claims. This man and his family will lose which they cannot afford to tile.

We have but one been to crave of This man and his family will lose which they cannot afford to litigate the aforesaid gal. gen, and unafd. Let their dream of coming home from a far in courts where money is an indispensional the aforesaid gai, gen. and unite. Let us have summery looking hats as well us have summery looking hats as well as summery seeming hats. Why should not summery seeming hats. Why should not summery seeming hats. ginla. The tradition that has nestled It is said that this court originated all the plaids and rosettes won by like a poem in their hearts has van- out of the public sentiment aroused in Paris from the Bulgar be strewn on ned. This is a grievous loss.

Yet Richmond loses more, it loses woman who could not collect $4.50 colors, too. What a pleasant night would man whose very words prove tout he from a deed heat, for whom she a man whose very words prove that he from a deed beat, for whom she Broad Street be in the late and dusky cherishes a fine ideal of society. It worked, when her small children were e'en with streamers of saffron and And teachin' the catbirds a new line of

All we can say in reply to this letter proper influences. The judge will not starts this fashion. He will certainly They are awake to our needs. The the needy, the lame, the halt, the sincerity and understanding of this blind, the friendless, the librarate and letter make us believe we will not be the ignorant can come confident of misunderstood when we say that the redress of their grievances. Pure just the number of the punches every such unlawful comlearned to love elsewhere they might the United States of Britain's High as powerful industrial combinations achieve the happiest end of their pil- Court of Judication. We doubt if the are also taken into camp. The Sugar Harne limit, stands upon a nobler Trust is singled out for a moderate eminence," believes the St. Louis Post, reduction now and a total removal of own ends. There are so many ways peting with his richer brother in any on business according to right and etc. looking at any matter that it is effort to maintain his rights and en. reason. It goes deeper than merely wherein it is claimed modern women the letter giveth life come muttering but it does seem that they are about are superior to men. One is in educa- that President Wilson's revival of the to harness monopoly. For a trusttion; the other in abstinence. There washington and Adams custom of ad- buster, how about the Underwood bill? is hever going to be any war between dressing Congress in person in a dethe sexes for that would be human sui- parture from the faith of the fathers. Louisville reports that 5,000 barrels. cide. Furthermore, every step forward These false prophets of disaster con- of 'licker' were washed away by the made by women helps the whole race, tend that President Jefferson about flood, but it's an ill flood that never The interests of the man and the wo- doned the practice as an "imitation of brings anybody good. Those barrels !!

sional reply to the address, a rejoinder One Six Three One sense observation of daily life, that dispute to the detriment of the real schools. Each year the colleges are cember, 1801, to the President of the He took his pay right home each week

"legislative one."

r conditions, I am sorty to say justice to my ave boys—be-fourteen and twenty—that 1 and John L. Satterfield, candidates for now. The main thing is that he never now. The main thing is that he never thetic of all in the fact that there is is elected will be expected by the peono defense. If we cannot feel the pl of Richmond to prepare a bill alverity of this epistle, in which there is tering the present condition and to lant gentleman and unafraid." Surely The lack of a library and the poor the moral effect will be tremendous summer on us unawares. He leaves be-ren to give them nobler ideals of lite. Kansas, has created a marvelous worthy men. They herald in their top.

be worth while to note two points. They to whom the spirit killeth and make the corporations come to time. they would "click the crooks and inan are the same, and what benefits royalty because Britain's King per- never get by North Carolina.

It's pretty hard for any one to credit could glean from the confessions.

James henry Bilkins, you must know, is nothing but a bluff, little yarn of ours is just a tion.

From the Hickeyville Courier.

The abolition of the fee system of compensating public officers would compensating public officers would thus served mankind. . . . Wheth-Il seek questionable ones, on this sojeurn here looktions, I am sorry to say or to my live boys—been and twenty—that I down here, but must in Virginia, as were my in Virgin not of form.

Jeffersonian Democracy is of substance.

Hank Peters says no expects to so desire into which to an art school soon to learn to be a dentist. A dentist, he says, has to do a lot of drawing.

Hank Peters says no expects to so backed, and this means time, precious. Hence the fast thundering by to North Phi

Virginia in April

Virginia in April, And what do I care

And you always get ready But never can go!

can be no bribery, no politics, no im- breeze? The true hero will be he who A morning in heaven on the green banks of dream. Virginia in April, The place meant for me,

When April is trimmin'
The pussy-cat tree!
—Baltimore Sun.

Abe Martin

Some great men deliver th' go other wear frock coats. Next i' emplary clizen, nobuddy gi lonesome as a retired farmer.

On the Spurof the Moment
By Roy K. Moulton

A Model Husband, James Henry Bilkins was a man who leved the standard for the Moment should have the state to the fall of the fall or worked the "sick friend" blotted out in a few moments, not because of the fives that they blotted out in a few moments, not because of the sorrow which they thrust into a number of the homes of Hillsville, but because they themselves did not want to die. That is about all one And you will think there must be like for some good man or woman to

Some mistake.

That any living man could be made of that kind of stuff:

And we have an apology to make.

James henry filkins, you must know, The command of God is: defense. But it is different with Commonwealth, who is in duty bour Spring is certainly coming soon.
Deacon Stubb's youle Hyacinth has got the spring hait.
Elmer Jones, who went to Washington to attend the inauguration, is on his way home, but he is not expected here until about June i, as he is coming on foot.

A Hickeyville man has an auto-of the many. Let those who profess the many. Let those who profess the many disciples of the Sage of t inconvenient arrangement, prefer to keep right on to New York.

The proposed Broad Street Terminal of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Technology of the Richmond and Technology of the Ric

The proposed Broad Street Terminal of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad will be ten times more inconvenient than the famous Philadelphia station. Whoever heard of a station in a town of 150.00 Philadelphia station. Whoever heard of a station in a town of 159,666 people being located over two miles from the post-office, the City Itali, the hotels and three miles almost from the nearest railroad station? Baltimoreans protested against the Union Station being built one mile away from the way on Lexington Street. And in the way on Lexington Street. And in the same city the beautiful Mount Royal has been a lamentable failure, has never in the slightest degree competed with the ancient and dilapidated Cambell with the ancient and dilapidated Cambell who at a distance view them, sleep-And doodlebugs travel like frogs; with the ancient and dilapidated Cam-den Station of the Baltimore and Ohio. If Richmond, the new awakened expanding Richmond, allows this railroad to carry out its plans what will be the result? The local people will have to journey miles from their homes, And the sheep bells are tinklin' so mellow and sweet.

As they nibble away at the green winter wheat the sheep bells are tinklin' so down at West Richmond, now known as Acca. Passengers from Norfolk, from Newport News and from state of the sheet that the sheep bells are tinklin' so down at West Richmond, now known as Acca. Passengers from Norfolk, from Newport News and from state of the sheet that the sheep bells are tinklin' so down at West Richmond, now known as Acca. on the Southern will be compelled to enrich the transfer and taxi-cab com-panies in order to get to this out-of-the way terminal.

Let the City Council, the newspapers

Let the City Council, the newspapers They know very well that Richmond needs a grand Union Station for all of her railroads, except the Southern, body acquainted with the topography of Richmond where it should be lo-cated. Let us prifit by the experience of Philadelphia and Baltimore. Give us a flag station at or near Bolton for the convenience of the West End, but a Broad Street Terminal, never, PRO ARIS ET FOCIS.

A Referendum on Capital Punishment. To the Editor of The Times-Dispatch: Sir,—Believing that the abolishment of capital punishment is a question that vitally affects the foundation on which our government or society rests, and that it will affect the present and future welfare of same, would it not be well to refer the question to a vote of the people in Virginia? If a majority wants it abolished and so vote, then the question is settled for this generation, at least. J. H. MAHANEY.

The State's Double Duty.
To the Editor of The Times-Dispatch: Sir, Concerning your recent editorial asking if Virginia could learn anything from Oregon, will say that Virginia should not learn from Oregon until Oregon treats her old and halt and lame and unentiloyed and says of the s ployed and other unfortunates who have committed no crime better than she does her criminats, or at least as

PUT THIST ABEL ON YOUR GOODS Telephon . MADISON 805 and ask CHAMBER COMMERCE

Virginia, O that I might be Back within thy borders, free From the cruel strife of man in hie's whirlpool!

And my soul with longing yearns, For thy valleys, mountains, meadows, brooklets cool:

Stately hemlocks, prophets old, True the story that you told When, a youth, I reamed upon the dear ame and went as if unheard To other lands my youthful mind gave fuller charm:

Where the lovely hawthorns blow. Where the rhededendren woos the lily Where the sweet arbutus bloom, Lends its delicate perfume

To the evening breeze-a fragrance,

Bathed in glory as, at eve, the sun

Then I long again to roam

Near my old Virginia home In the shadow of those softly murm'

And the whip-poor-will's sad call. Plaintive, floats upon the stilled even-

Oft, methinks, unto mine ear Comes the music of my sweethear;'s song of tore;

"Tho' the angels turn from thee,

We who at a distance view them, sleep-less hear a nightmare roar.

They in lost homes there to rue them as they in devastation pour.

When serpents walk upright like me And doodlebugs travel like frogs: When grasshoppers feed on the hen, And feathers are found on hogs. When Thomas cats swim in the air,

Rise we then as a nation each to do his utmost part.

For their rescue and preservation, speed we on with tenderest
heart,
When the storm's past, comes the sunshine, refulgent on the ruin and wreck,
Haste with our might to aid them,
helmsmen on disaster's deck.

When Thomas cats swim in the air,
And clephants roost upon trees,
When insects in summer are rare,
And snuff never makes people sneeze.
When fish creep over dry land,
And mules on velocipedes ride,
When foxes lay eggs in the sand,
And women in dress take no pride;
When Dutchmen no longer beer drink,
And girls get to preaching on time,
When Thomas cats swim in the air,
And clephants roost upon trees,
When insects in summer are rare,
And snuff never makes people sneeze.
When fish creep over dry land,
And women in dress take no pride;
When players in summer are rare,
And snuff never makes people sneeze.
When fish creep over dry land,
And women in dress take no pride;
When Players in summer are rare,
And snuff never makes people sneeze.
When fish creep over dry land,
And women in dress take no pride;
When players in summer are rare,
And snuff never makes people sneeze.
When fish creep over dry land,
And women in dress take no pride;
When blayers in summer are rare,
And snuff never makes people sneeze.
When fish creep over dry land,
And women in dress take no pride;
When Thomas cats swim in the air,
And snuff never makes people sneeze.
When fish creep over dry land,
And mules on velocipedes ride,
When Dutchmen no longer beer drink,
And women in dress take no pride;
When fish creep over dry land,
And women in dress take no pride;
When fish creep over dry land,
And women in dress take no pride;
When fish creep over dry land,
And women in dress take no pride;

O'er the waste and wreck of waters comes the cry from anguished breast, And the lisping, laughing children saved from the angry water's and the Chamber of Commerce awake to the gravity of the situation and stop this project before it is too late.

for their souls and bodies good.

God of nations! Lord of waters! hear us as we work and strive. God of nations! Lord of waters us as we work and strive.
For thy stricken sons and daughters, onward to the highest drive;
Bravely soldiers, nobly statesmen bend their efforts and their brains, Lead and guide us to aid and help them, struggling on those dreary mains.

A. R. CHALMERS. Amalgamated Copper closed at a net

Doubt in Allen Case.

To the Editor of The Times-Dispatch:
Sir,—May I contribute through your columns to the people of Virginia my impressions of the cases of the two Aliens, now condemned to death?
First, I would ask if there is any citizen of Virginia who can say he has absolutely no doubt but that those two Allens began the firing in the courthouse the day of the cider Allen's trial, or that there was a conspiracy to shoot up the court? Of course,

First, she said she thought Claude llen's letter that appeared in The Times-Dispatch, was so appealing, and have any heart at all, I remained silent during the whole conversation, and I wondered how far her intellec-tual qualities extended anyhow.

Doubtless, she does not look at the situation from the same standpoint that other thinking people do. I see no reason why Governor Mann should pardon men that violated the law of God and of man. No. Governor Mann, I heartily applied the step you took by remaining so firm and resolute, in spite of the numerous pleas. I only wish that I were near enough to grasp your hand in the deepest grat-Mann has been placed, brought back to mind part of a hymn I used to hear some colored people sing years ago-"The storms may rise and the winds

But none shall frighten me from my I believe the Allens had everybody's sympathy, but we cannot let sympaoverride the laws of our land

The Mayor of Ivor's Position.
To the Editor of The Times-Dispatch:
Sir.—As a subscriber to your val uame paper, anow he to explain my self in regard to the Allens Some time ago, when clamor was running high for Floyd and Claude Allen, I allowed my rame to go on a petition arking clemency for Claude Allen. But after tice in our old mather State

Stands With Mr. Hughes.

To the Editor of The Times-Dispatch: Sir,-Allow me to make known to the public that my hearty sentiments are expressed exactly in J. T. Hughes's comparison of the Allens with Bacon's Keysville.

PARTY BE DEAD?

When the lions cal grass like an ex.

And the hare is outrun by the small, Then sorpents walk upright like men, And doodlebugs travel like frogs;

When Thomas cats swim in the air,

And girls get to preaching on time, When billy goats butt from the rear, And treason no longer is crime. When the hummin' bird brays like an And Limburger smells like cologne.

When plowshares are made out of glass,
And the hearts of Georgians are stone, When ideas grow in Populists' heads, And wool on the hydraulic ram Then the Democratic party will be

And this country won't be worth a

QUERIES & ANSWERS

Benjamin Hallowell. Can you inform me to what denomination Benjamin Hallowell, the famous old principal of the Alexandria Academy, belonged?

Those Attending the Convention of the Young Women's Christian Association who have any banking matters to transact will receive prompt and courteous service at the

NATIONAL STATE & CITY BANK

We shall be pleased to render any service in the matters of making change and of extending any information as to the places in the city which would be of interest to visitors.

1111 East Main Street